1. INTRODUCTION

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in its endeavor to protect the interests of investors, has formulated the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 under the powers conferred on it under the SEBI Act, 1992.

Insider trading means 'trading' in 'Securities' of a Company by its Directors, Employees or other 'Insiders' based on 'Unpublished Price Sensitive Information'. Such activities by Insiders erode the investors' confidence in the integrity of the management and are unhealthy for the capital markets.

The Regulations prohibits an insider of a Company to deal in the securities of such Company while in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. The Insider Trading Regulations also prohibits an insider to 'communicate, counsel or procure', whether 'directly or indirectly', any unpublished price sensitive information to any person including insiders, who while in possession of such information may 'deal' in the securities of the Company listed or proposed to be listed to any person including other Insiders, except where such communications is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations; (c) any person to procure from or cause the communication by any Insider of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, relating to a Company or Securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. Every Director, Officer, Designated Employee of the Company has a duty to safeguard the confidentiality of all the information obtained during the course of his /her employment at the Company.

Every Director, Officer, Designated Employee of the Company has a duty to safeguard the confidentiality of all the information obtained during the course of his /her employment at the Company.

This code of conduct is applicable from May 15, 2015.

- t. Where there is a violation of regulations, the compliance officer or the company shall immediately inform SEBI about such violation.

4. PRESERVATION OF "PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION"

All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- a. Entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- b. not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

The Company shall ensure appropriate and fair response to queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumours by regulatory authorities.

Need to Know:

- a. "Need to Know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- b. All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

Chinese Wall Procedures

Norms for Chinese Wall procedures is as under;

- a. To prevent the misuse of confidential information, the Company shall separate those areas of the Company which routinely have access to confidential information , considered “inside areas” from those areas which deal with sale/marketing /investment advise or other departments providing support services, considered “public areas”.

- b. The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any price sensitive information to any one in public area.
- c. In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be bought “over the wall” and given confidential information on the basis of “need to Know” criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.

TRADING PLAN

An insider shall be entitle to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

Trading Plan shall;

- a. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- b. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- c. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- d. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- e. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.
